

Relief-Tone

What?

Relief-Tone is a homeopathic remedy designed to ignite the body's healing response to pain, injuries and inflammation.

Why?

Homeopathy is becoming popular in the healthcare community as it offers a safe, effective and nontoxic alternative to many conventional treatments. According to the principles of homeopathy, homeopathic remedies ignite the body's own healing response so it can nourish itself back to health – a truly holistic and natural process.

Relief-Tone is one of Energetix' most popular homeopathic formulas and has proven its effectiveness time and time again. Homeopathic ingredients in this blend, such as Arnica Montana, assist with pain and inflammation while Cortisone and Comfrey help build bone and promote speedy healing!

How?

Take 30 drops twice daily, or as directed by your healthcare professional.

Tips:

In acute pain or inflammatory situations, Relief-Tone can be taken every 15 -30 minutes until the pain subsides, or as directed by your healthcare professional.

Relief-Tone makes a perfect addition to a natural first aid kit!
